Additional Information:

As “The Battle of Algiers” runs 123 minutes, it will be necessary to schedule the film screening in two back-to-back sessions. This proposal was discussed at last year’s meeting in Austin and the Southwestern Historical Association leadership suggested it be shown in back-to-back sessions just prior to the Southwestern Historical Association general business meeting. Two back-to-back sessions will provide time to show the film and follow the screening with a panel discussion on the impact and relevance of the film.
